

Going Out? Do it Safely!

Your actions matter – make informed choices to keep yourself and others safe.

Low Risk

Getting mail and packages

Driving a car (solo/with household contacts)

Camping

Restaurant takeout

Running/hiking/biking solo or at a distance

Grocery and Retail Shopping

Going for a walk

“Distanced” sports outside (tennis/golf)

Socially distanced picnic

Community/Outdoor parks and beaches

Backyard BBQ with your ‘bubble’ contacts

Medium Risk

Outdoor restaurant/patio

Playing on play structures

Hotel/BnB

Medical/dental appointments

Malls/museums/galleries

Working in an office

School/camp/daycare

Taxi/ride shares

Public pools

Visiting elderly or at-risk family/friends in their homes

Hair salon/barbers

Weddings and funerals

Movie theatre

High Risk

Crowded indoor restaurant

Contact sports with shared equipment football/basketball

Hugging or shaking hands

Amusement parks

Cruise ships and resorts

Conferences

Large gatherings

Gyms and athletic studios

Sporting events in arenas and stadiums

Music concerts, or where people are singing or shouting

Indoor party

Bars and Nightclubs

Casinos

Crowded public transportation (bus, subway)

Sexual activity with new people

Home alone or with household contacts

Outdoors with housemates or social bubble

Outdoors with physical distancing

Outdoor/Indoor Short time

Indoors Large groups Long time

Indoors/outdoors Crowded Longer time